

NARAL
Pro-Choice America Foundation

Rep. John Boehner (R-OH)

1991-present

In the U.S. House of Representatives, Rep. John Boehner has cast 142 votes on abortion and other reproductive-rights issues. All 142 were anti-choice.

A selection of Rep. Boehner's key votes on reproductive-health issues follow.

Voted 17 times to deny women in the military – who are defending our freedom overseas – the right to use their own, private funds for abortion care at overseas military hospitals. [House vote #109 (5/22/91); House vote #163 (6/4/92); House vote #458 (10/3/92); House vote #382 (6/15/95); House vote #641 (9/7/95); House vote #642 (9/7/95); House vote #167 (5/14/96); House vote #217 (6/19/97); House vote #171 (5/20/98); House vote #184 (6/9/99); House vote #203 (5/18/00); House vote #357 (9/25/01); House vote #153 (5/10/02); House vote #215 (5/22/03); House vote #197 (5/19/04); House vote #216 (5/25/05); House vote #136 (5/10/06)]

Voted for the notorious Stupak amendment, which would have banned abortion coverage to women in the new health system, even those buying health insurance entirely with their own funds. [House vote #884 (11/7/09); House vote #166 (3/21/10)]

Voted four times to ban the District of Columbia from using its own local funds for abortion care for low-income women. [House vote #534 (10/27/93); House vote #332 (7/22/96); House vote #408 (8/6/98); House vote #570 (7/16/09)]

Voted twice to deny federal funding of abortion care to survivors of rape and incest. [House vote #619 (8/3/95); House vote #51 (3/7/96)]

Voted eight times against clinic protection for women and their doctors. [House vote #580 (11/18/93); House vote #582 (11/18/93); House vote #66 (3/17/94); House vote #68 (3/17/94); House vote #157 (5/5/94); House vote #158 (5/5/94); House vote #159 (5/5/94); House vote #125 (2/14/95)]

Voted twice against contraceptive equity for federal employees – a provision of law that ensures health plans cover birth control equally with other prescription medications. [House vote #290 (7/16/98); House vote #493 (10/7/98)]

Voted twice against the Family and Medical Leave Act. [House vote #443 (9/30/92); House vote #22 (2/3/93)]

Additionally, he is a cosponsor of the Chris Smith bill, "No Taxpayer Funding for Abortion Act" (H.R.5939).